Notification No. 9111, dated the 23*rd February* 1925.

Ordinance 65 (page 38 of Calendar for 1924-25) has been amended as under :—

(i) Substitute the following for the Ordinance ;

"Any candidate who has passed the B.Sc. Examination may be admitted to a subsequent B.Sc. Examination in a principal subject other than the one already offered by him, provided it is one of the subjects studied by him in the first year's course, and provided he has not taken the B.Sc. Degree and has attended a regular course of lectures for two years on the said subject. Such candidate will be required to attend the examination only in the fresh principal subject chosen by him.

If he obtains not less than 40 per cent of the maximum marks in the subject, he will be certified to have passed the B.Sc. Examination in that additional subject also."

(ii) Add the following at the end of the Ordinance as modified above.

"Candidates who pass the B.Sc. Examination in a second main subject under this Ordinance will be considered to have earned distinction in that subject if they secure not less than 60 per cent of the total marks in the subject."

The Ordinance as amended will read as follows :—

"Any candidate who has passed the B.Sc. Examination may be admitted to a subsequent B.Sc. Examination in a principal subject other than the one already offered by him, provided it is one of the subjects studied by him in the first year's course, and provided he has not taken the B.Sc.
